Accidental Genius

Anthony Petullo Collection

Feb. 10 – May 6, 2012

This exhibition celebrates the gift to the Milwaukee Art Museum of more than 300 works from the Anthony Petullo Collection. This generous gift greatly enhances the Milwaukee Art Museum's significant holdings of self-taught material. Petullo, a retired Milwaukee businessman and current Board of Trustees member, built his collection over a span of over thirty years. The collection's strength is in European work, an area represented in few American collections.
